Original Poetry.

For the REPUBLICAN.

PARTED HERE.

BY KITTY CLOVER.

Though mountains rise, as without end,
Though mountain torrents meet and blend,
And tempests lower;
Though time and space, below us roll,
We know the intercourse of soul,
Beyond their power.

The idle breeze shall bear along,
The fragments of familiar song,
Then join the strain;
And though your outstretched hand may meet,
No answering clasp, both kind and sweet,
We'll meet again.

It may be, in the weary land,
We never face to face shall stand,
As many a day,
Yet, in that Heaven we both hold dear
We'll hope to meet, when trials here
Have passed away.

Though dear and sweet, the friendship be
Formed on this side the jasper sea,
And based on love,
Still dearer, purer, sweeter far
Than earthly placed affections are,
Are those above.

Then, in the twilight's thoughtful hour,
When holiest thoughts have highest power,
With sins forgiven,
As in the dream that Jacob saw,
Let holy angels near us draw,
Direct from Heaven.

Then live my friend, with zealous will,
Your master's purpose to fulfil,
With ready hand:
And it shall be my task, to grow
Less fond of earth, that I may know
That better land.

For the REPUBLICAN.

A Defence of the Drunkard.

BY ONE WHO KNOWS.

At the request of an earnest working Christian, who loves his fellow men, and desires to do them good, the following defence of the drunkard has been written; and as the writer will be compelled, in showing things as they are, both in the civil and religious societies in our midst, to speak very plainly of the wrongs done, the drunkard and his family by persons of high standing both in society and in the church of God; he thinks it only justice to himself and others to say that there is nothing even in a remote degree personal in its character or intended to reflect on the actions of any particular person.

The drunkard is the finished article; he has passed through all the intermediate stages of dram drinking, tippling, moderate drinking, convivialist, social drinker and drunkard, and good society has set a special mark on each of these stages.

1st. As a dram drinker he is the companion and advisor of the minister, a leader in the church and sabbath school, the high moral man of the community, the example to our sons and intimate companion of our daughters.

[illegible] for the trusts and honors of office, he is our Representative, Senator, Congressman, Governor, President or minister to foreign nations.

3d. As a moderate drinker, he sits on the judges bench and in his judicial capacity passes sentence on offenders or adjudicates claims between man and man, or he acts as juror, attorney or officer of the courts of justice.

4th. As a convivialist, he is the object of admiration to our youths and maidens, he is such a pleasant fellow, he seems to have no care, or rather he seems to care for nothing, and our youths become ambitious of his notice and our maidens are led captive by his arts.

5th. As a social drinker, he is the business man of the community, your merchant, your mechanic, your producer, your doctor, your lawyer and sometimes perhaps your preacher.

In all these stages he has the countenance and confidence of the community, civil, political and religious.

6th. As a drunkard he is the outcast of the community, the doors of good society are shut against him, the church knows him not, his family is impoverished, his wife is broken hearted, his sons are disgraced and often follow in his footsteps, he is a burden to himself, his system is diseased, the demon in his stomach like the horse leach, is continually crying give, give. He turns his eyes to his fellow man imploringly for help, for he is ashamed to ask, he lifts his eye to heaven and hopes for help from above; he feels that he is a captive and oh how he longs to be free; he feels that his reason is enslaved so that he cannot believe Gods willingness to help; again he turns to his brother man, but alas the Priest looks on him and passes by on the other side, the Levite (class leaders, elders &c.) also looks on him and passes by on the other side, and for him there is no good Samaritan, he cries aloud in the night, when all others are asleep; hear the accusing cry that goes up to the Lord of sabbath. Oh, Lord no man careth for my soul! Terrible accusation! Wo unto you scribes and pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against man, especially do you shut it up against the poor drunkard. Oh, ye Pastors who refuse or neglect to feed the weak—the lambs of the flock How can the love of Jesus be in you? Oh ye elders, ye class leaders, ye vestry men, ye officers and teachers in Christs church, how can ye say ye love the Lord, and refuse to assist the repentant erring one, refuse to feed his lambs for whom he died—and you, ye members of Christs visible church who from time to time meet at his table to record the love of your departed Lord, how say ye that ye love Jesus and love not your brother for whom Christ died; for he that loveth not his brother whom he has seen how can he love the Lord whom he has not seen?

Truly the drunkards midnight cry of accusation against the professing deciples of the Lord is a fearful one.

"Lord no man careth for my soul." The drunkard wants help, needs help, implores you for help, and ye turn away bidding him depart for thou art holier than he.

He asks for bread, (the bread of life,) and ye give him a stone. Ye say to him reform, you are a beastly drunkard and I perhaps helped to make you one, but reform, reform: Yes, you say to the starving be ye fed but you give him no bread; and if by the sovereign grace of an all merciful God, he is enabled to break off from his cups for a season, do you take him by the hand and say come with us and we will do you good? Do you try to keep him occupied? Do you visit him and try to keep his mind in a healthy state? or do you coldly turn your back upon him, and leave him to idleness, to morbid feelings, to the terrible assaults of appetite and in short to almost certain destruction?

You who are the Pastors, class leaders, elders &c., of the church of God cannot say that your skirts are clear of the blood of souls while you tredt the drunkard, as you now do. Nay, be assured that the souls of many of them will be required at your hands, for ye knew your duty but you did it not.

I know whereof I speak when I say that in this town there are drunkards whose friends and relations are members of churches, who earnestly desire to become temperate men, (and followers of Christ perhaps) striving oft in agony and tears to break away from depraved appetites, ashamed to ask help in their sore need, afraid that they may again fall and vex the hand that helped; yet, suffering, striving, fighting appetite and temptation, they still fall lower and lower till at last they fall into a drunkards grave for want of help. Christians why will ye not extend a helping hand to them that are ready to perish? Are you afraid that men of the world may talk about you, and disapprove of your act, are you afraid that you will lose the business of the drunkards enemies? Do you fear that they will not give you their business? That you will not get the pay for asking the court to allow them to sell liquor to the drunkard? That they will take their deposites from your bank? That they will not deal at your store? That they will not buy grain or meat from you? If you are not afraid, then assist the Drunkard to become a sober and temperate man by giving or finding him employment, leave him no time to brood over the evils he has brought on himself and family by drink, call and see him, talk to him as you would to a sick man of his disease, the disease of drunkenness, treat him kindly, encourage him, endeavor to bring and keep his mind in a careful and healthy state, do not leave him to himself; not only try to find him employment that will occupy his whole time, but give him employment yourself if possible, show him you trust him, and you will get his confidence and love, and he will rise in his own self respect—his powers of resistance will be increased, and in time he may be able to assist to save others. Finally brethren cease to wrong the drunkard and henceforth labor to save him.

Republican Pledges.

In 1868 at the National Republican convention, the delegates there assembled gave pledges to the people of the United States, which, if successful in Congress, they promised to fulfill. The people took their word, rallied around the Republican banner, and the party was successful. Never were pledges more faithfully redeemed to the very letter by any party or men. The Republican party propose to keep right on in the good work, and as they have heretofore fulfilled all their promises to the people, the people will continue to trust them, and a Republican victory is as certain this fall, as the sun is to rise in the morning. The people trusted the party in 1868 and was not betrayed, and they will again trust it in 1870. The following are the pledges spoken of above, and we defy any person, in truth, to point out a single sentence in them that has not been literally fulfilled:

1 Equal civil and political rights to all under our national authority, whether native born or naturalized, and the protection of the humblest and weakest as faithfully as the richest and most powerful.

2. The condemnation of all forms and plans of direct or indirect repudiation as a national crime, and the maintenance untarnished, in the uttermost good faith, of national honor and national credit, as regards our debt, the cost of our national existence.

3. Taxation to be equalized and reduced as rapidly as the national faith will permit.

4. The debt, having been contracted for the preservation of the Union for all time to come, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, reducing the rate of interest thereon as soon as it can be honestly done.

5. The Government to be administered with the strictest economy, and "the corruptions so shamefully nursed and fostered by Andrew Johnson" to be radically reformed.

6. The European doctrine of "once a subject always a subject" to be resisted at every hazard by the United States, as at war with our national honor and independence.

7. The bounties and pensions provided by law for the soldiers and sailors who imperiled their lives for their country, and for the widows and orphans of the gallant dead, to be ever considered as sacred obligations.

8. Foreign emigration, adding so largely to the wealth, development, resources, and increase of power of this republic, to be fostered by a policy which shall be just as well as liberal.

9. Sympathy with all oppressed peoples throughout the world, struggling for their rights.

10. Amnesty to all, however hostile in the past, "who frankly and honestly cooperate in restoring concord to the South on the basis of impartial justice and equal rights"

11. The great principles of the Declaration of Independence, as the foundation of truly democratic Government, to be made a living reality on every inch of American soil.

12. "Let us have peace," because, in the language of Gen. Grant, "peace and universal prosperity, its sequence, with economy of administration, will lighten the burden of taxation, while it constantly reduces the national debt."

IOWA, under Republican rule, has paid off all her public debt, and has a large surplus; Indiana has paid the last dollar she owed; and her bonds are no longer the sport of Wall street stock jobbers; Illinois has steadily reduced her indebtedness, and has at easy command the means to extinguish it; and now comes Michigan, which has reduced her indebtedness about two millions in the past eighteen months. In the same time, President Grant's administration has paid about $150,000,000 of the National debt, and reduced taxation about eighty millions.

IT is necessary to extend the aid of government to build up and maintain the domestic commerce of a country.

FATHER'S A DRUNKARD AND MOTHER IS DEAD.

Out in the gloomy night sadly I roam,
I have no mother dear, no pleasant home.
Nobody cares for me—no one would cry,
Even if poor little Bessie should die,
Barefoot and tired I've wandered all day
Asking for work—but I'm too small, they say;
On the damp ground I must now lay my head—
"Father's a drunkard and mother is dead!"

CHORUS,

Mother, oh! why did you leave me alone,
With no one to love me, no friends, and no home?
Dark is the night, and the storm rages wild—
God pity Bessie, the drunkard's lone child.

We were so happy till father drank rum
Then all our sorrows and troubles begun;
Mother grew pale and wept every day,
Baby and I were too hungry to play.
Slowly they faded, and one summer night
Found their dear faces all silent and white;
When, with big tears slowly drooping I said;
"Father's a drunkard and mother is dead!"

CHORUS.—Mother, oh! why, &c.

Oh! if the "temp'rance men" only could find
Poor wretched father and talk very kind—
If they could stop him from drinking—why, then
I should be so very happy again!
Is it too late "men of temp'rance," please try,
Or poor little Bessie may soon starve and die.
All day long I've been begging for bread—
"Father's a drunkard and mother is dead!"

CHORUS.—mother, oh! why, &c.

Republican Performances.

The copperhead Democrats of this County, as well as other counties in the state, are continually harping about promises made by Republicans, which are never fulfilled, and assert that under Republican rule the county is fast going to the dogs. We give below some of the performances of the Republican party which we commend to the perusal of Democratic growlers generally:

It abolished Slavery!
It established Universal Suffrage!
It gave Liberty to all Sections!
It protected the Civil Rights of all men!
It defeated Repudiation!
It gave Republican government to the South!
It built the Pacific Railroad!
It passed the Homestead Law!
It opened New Roads into the uninhabited public domain!
It secured Pensions and Homesteads to the Union Soldiers!
It has reduced the National Debt one hundred and forty-six millions in sixteen months, thus certainly securing the extinction of the whole debt in less than fifteen years!
It has reduced Taxation Eighteen Millions of Dollars in one bill!
It has passed a Revenue Tariff with full incidental protection to American Labor!
It has reduced the prospective interest on the National Debt!

And we may add: It supports the Liberal Principles of United Germany, against the Despotism of the present French Dynasty, the enemy of the United States during our great Rebellion!

COMPARED WITH THE DISASTROUS RECORD OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY:

Sympathy with the Rebelion!
Devotion to Slavery!
Hostility to Universal Suffrage!
Persecution of the Freed People!
Opposition to the Civil Rights Bill!
Favorable to Repudiation!
Adverse to the Reduction of the Debt!
Votes in Congress against Reducing Taxation!
Prejudice against the Union Soldier!
Committed to Low Wages and Free Trade!

The Democratic Party Demoralized.

It is conceded by all [illegible] informed Democrats that with proper exertion by the Republicans, Centre Co., will give a Republican majority next month. Owing to the mean dictatorial course pursued by the Court House Ring, the Democratic party in this county is in a demoralized and helpless condition. Its assumed leaders are vituperating each other in the choicest of Billinsgate language; they have no organization that the masses of the party have any confidence in, consequently the rank and file of the party are like a vessel at sea without compass or ruder besides the leaders are not imbued with that spirited patriotism which should chrracterize the movements of those who love ther country, its laws and institutions, and can, therefore, infuse no confidence into the people. The Republicans, by still further perfecting their organization, can largely increase their majority. Let them aim to do this in every township. It is their duty to do so. The old Democratic party having nearly ceased to exist, let its last lingering traces in this county, be effectually wiped out at the polls.

THE UNITED STATES REVENUE.—The Treasury Department has just issued a comparative statement of the receipts of the United States Government in the two periods between September 1st, 1870, and March 1st, 1868, and between March 1st, 1869, and September 1st, 1780. The receipts during the first period of eighteen months amounted to $556,315,202, distribution as follows; From customs, $251,973,708; internal revenue, $149,133,846; lands, $3,491,379, and miscellaneous, $54,716,270. The receipts during the second period amounted to $643,728,669, distributed as follows; Customs, $293,925,139; Internal revenue, $299,397,765; lands, $5,310,895, and miscellaneous, $44,095,170.—The increase in the second period was as follows; Customs, $42,751,431; internal revenue, $53,263,919, and lands, $1,819,516, making a total increase of $97,834,866.—The miscellaneous receipts have decreased $10,621,100, so that the net increase of receipts during the last period of eighteen months, ending September 1st, 1870, was $87,213,766.

AN orthodox Democratic journal, the Augusta (Ga.,) Chronicle, thus explains the course to be persued in regard to the Fifteenth Amendment:

"We should avoid the appearance of hostillity to this infamous amendment, at least until we are in a better position to secure its abolishment, or have it declared inoperative by competent authority. This course is earnestly recommended on the score of future party success."

There may be honor in asking negro votes to get Democrats into power in the South, so that when in power they may disfranchise the blacks who help them to office, but certainly there is no policy in avowing such intentions. No party can permanently succeed on such a false basis, and to talk now of repealing the Fifteenth Amendment is only to revive unnecessary wranglings over a question which is finally settled and which cannot have its answer changed except at the cost of making rebels of the race whom the Chronicle would disfranchise.

A tombstone in a Maine graveyard, erected to the memory of a wife, bears the inscription: "Tears cannot restore thee; therefore I weep."

The Fifteenth Amendment gives Pennsylvania 9475 voters. The State contains a negro population of 58,849.

Auditor General.

The Sunday Republic in speaking of prominent Republicans named for the position of Auditor General to be voted for in October 1871, says of Gen. Beaver of this place:

That he is an attorney and stands at the head of the bar of this county. He entered the service of his country under the first call for troops as first lieutenant of Company H. Second Regiment of Pennsylvania Volunteers, three months service, leaving a large and lucrative practice. He served until the expiration of his term, July, 1861, when he was immediately chosen lieutenant colonel of the Forty-fifth Regiment, P. V., and taking the field served with that command with distinction until September 8, 1862, when he was chosen colonel of the 148th Regiment, and served with Hancock's celebrated Second Corps. He was severely wounded at Chancellorsville, May 3, 1863, but after a brief absence returned to his regiment, and was again wounded at Cold Habor, June 2, 1864, but refused to leave his command, and was again wounded at Petersburg on the 16th of the same month.

IN the latter part of August he had sufficiently recovered from his wounds to take command again, and while leading his men bravely into action at Reams's Station, on the day of his return, received a wound by which he lost his leg, and was conveyed from the field in the same ambulance that took him there. He was brevetted brigadier general August 1st, 1864, and honorably discharged from service December 22, 1864, on account of disability. General Beaver is in the prime of life, full of vigor and energy, and as an executive officer has few superiors in the commonwealth. He is a man of highest moral character, being a steadfast member of the Presbyterian Church, is a speaker of considerable ability, and one of the finest scholars Princeton College has produced.

THE Spanish Government promised the United States to provide for emancipation in Cuba, but has abandoned fulfilling the promise. The same neglect of United States interests appears in commercial matters. With this country as her nearest neighbor, Cuba should have the largest trade and encourage it by most liberal legislation. Instead, Spain's colonial policy has shut up Cuba against our commerce. This question will come up before the approaching Commercial Convention at Cincinati, and the western grain interests at least will have a fresh instance of Spanish discrimination against us, to nerve them to action, in the fact that on and after October 1, the duty on flour imported into Cuba (unless from Spain) will be raised $2,50 per barrel in gold, making the duty altogether, we believe, $6,50 per barrel in specie. This enormous duty of one hundred per cent. ad valorem, or more on the lower grades of flour, must still further diminish our trade with that island.

QUERY.—Why is it that our particular friend J. G. Kurtz chooses the Watchman as a medium through which to pour out his complaints? Surely there is no necessity for this. The columns of the REPUBLICAN are open to him, to all, especially to aggrieved Republicans. We intend to treat all Republicans fairly. We have done so, and will continue to do so. Then why seek the columns of the Watchman, that disloyal, treasonable and free trade sheet?

DEATH OF GEN. WM. H. MILLER.—This gentleman, whom many of our citizens heard address the Democratic meeting on Tuesday night of our last court, died at his residence near Harrisburg on the 11th inst., in the 42nd year of his age. Gen. Miller was a man of rare talents, and had filled many highly responsible positions. He was born in Perry county, and was Secretary of the Commonwealth under Governor Shunk.

DEMOCRATIC TESTIMONY IN FAVOR OF WILSON AND WOODS.—The Republican Senatorial nominees of this district are so irreproachible that even their Democratic enemies are compelled to acknowledge their ability and fair reputation.—The following tribute to their worth we clip from the Independent, a staunch Democratic paper published at Mifflintown, Juniata County Pa.,

"The Republicans have finished the matter by the nomination of W. P. Wilson, Esq., of Bellefonte, and David W. Woods, Esq., of Lewistown, for Senate. Personally, they are men of fair reputation as lawyers, they have obtained good standing and well established characters.

HON W. H. ARMSTRONG.

That the Republican party of this Congressional district is a unite in the support of Mr. Armstrong, is now placed beyond the possibility of a doubt. Every Republican county convention in the district have unanimously renominated him and endorsed his Congressional career. At the Potter county Republican convention the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved. That we take pleasure in recommending to the people of this Congressional district for re-election, the Hon. Wm. H. Armstrong, our present representative in Congress, and that with pride we point to his official acts, as showing him to be the right man in the right place.

At the Republican county convention of Clinton county, after re-nominating Mr. Armstsong by acclamation, the following resolution was unanimoilsly passed.

Resolved. That we heartily endorse the course, on the floor of the National Congress, of our Representative, Hon. Wm. Armstrong.

"WHA WOULD' A THO'T IT."

Yes, who would have thought, two weeks ago, that P. G. Meek the great defender of a white man's Government "made by white men and to be controlled by whitemen only.'—would have so soon changed his tune and got down on his marrow bones and solicit colored citizens to come to his rescue and save him else he perish. Yet it is a fact—an incontrovertible fact—that Mr. Meek has changed his tactics, we will not say opinion, and now asks, indirectly we know, the colored citizen to take his case—the case of his party in hand and help him and them to once more dine off the public flesh pots of the country, which they while in power well nigh ruined. The world is full of change is certainly refreshing. In an editorial article of the last Watchman entittled "This is where you you see it," he says:

"Let the colored population of this county bear this in mind when they go to the polls on the 11th of October next. Let them awake to the important truth that Radicalism is not, by any means, the friend of the negro. They are used as tools, when they can be used. Let them see that it is not so in this instance.

Does Meek think to humbug and bamboozle the colored voters to support their enemies and the foes of their country? After the election he may find that class of citizens more intelligent than he has given them credit for. At all events, Meek has added his testimony to the fact that the world moves, and that the colored American citizen has rights that even a Democratic editor thinks it the best policy to respect. "This is where you see it."

DEMOCRATS ALARMED.

Our Democratic friends are just now considerably alarmed at the results of their own work in defaming the Germans, their cause and their leaders, in the present war for German unity and German Liberty, and extolling the virtues of their oppressor, the Despot Napoleon. The Democrat, Germans of New York were the first to cut lose from the Democratic party and enter their solemn protest against their political associates by severing themselves from the Democratic party, and espousing the cause of the great Republican party—the party of Right and Liberty. The action of the Germans of N. Y., is being followed by a large majority of their countrymen in all of our lage towns and cities. This movement on the part of the Liberty-loving Germans has struck dismay in the ranks of the Democratic party, and the leading papers of that party stand agahst at the work of their own hands and a great panic among the unterrified is the result.

The leaders of the opposition knew that a large number of their Irish voters sympathized with the Emperor Napoleon, and that to support or sympathise with the German cause would alienate from them those sons of Erin. Votes temptingly hung on each "one of the dilema." With the Democracy it was not a question of Right, but one of might. They thought the Germans too dumb to see through the cause of the sympathy for Napoleon's despotism expressed by the opposition, and went in for the greatest number of votes. The Democratic leaders now see their mistake and are trying to get back upon the fence, and hope to retain their strength by promising to jump either way, while they intend to remain where they are. They will find their efforts an up hill business, as the Germans are as intelligent as any other class of citizens and far less liable to be humbugged by politicians than many native born The following is one of the resolutions passed at the meeting of the German Democratic committee of New York city last week. It was passed without a dissenting vote:

Resolved. That the conduct of certain would-be Democratic paper, not satisfied with the expression of the strongest sympathies for the French usurper and aggressor in the present war, but coupling it with shameless perversion of facts and calumnious and insulting aspersions against the German people, does not only fill us with just indignation and heartfelt contempt, but that regard for truth, right and honor alike would demand of us the severance from any and every political association that could or would accept and follow such an unprincipled, malicious, mean and detestable course as has been chosen by said would-be Democratic papers.

Other meetings of the German Democrats of the city followed, in which resolutions were passed declaring their connection with the Democratic party severed, and resolved to make common cause with all Germans against the Democratic party which has traduced them and their country. At one of these meetings, a speaker whose sentiments were warmly applauded said:

Just as every one has been astonished at the results accomplished when all the districts of Germany rose as one against a common enemy, so all will be surprised at the effect which will be produced when the Germans of the twenty-one wards of this city rise altogether and make common cause with the party which has been true to the right and stood by their nation in the hour of her trouble."

WILSON AND WOODS.

Never were nominations made by any party that gave such general joyous satisfaction, to the people and the Republican party, as the nomination of Messrs. Wilson and Woods, by the Republican Senatorial convention recently held at Lewistown. In speaking of the nomination of these worthy men the Huntingdon Republican says:

Messrs. Wilson and Woods, are both gentlemen of learning and ability, and lawyers of high standing, and their Republicanism has been such as to commend them to the party in their respective counties, who declared for them three years ago as well as now. We could present strnger claims or better men? or what more can be demanded? All true Republicans will support, these candidates, knowing that too much depends upon their success to jeopard either of them. Rotation among the counties of the district is essential to success; and it will not do for the Republican counties to claim the candinates all the time because they give the majorities. Centre gave 3102 Republican votes and Mifflin 1640 at the general election last year while Huntingdon gave 2825 and Blair 3484. Their votes count as well as the same number of ours, and they cannot be ignored and treated as of no account. Let it be fully understood that this the 21st District is a close one, and that the fight for the control of the State Senate is to be fought in this double District, and every vote in it must be brought out to assure success.

The Tyrone Herald in speaking of the Senatorial convention and its nominees says:

The Republican Senatorial Conference placed Hon. Wm. P. Wilson, of Centre county, and Hon. David W. Woods, of Mifflin county, in nomination.

The Conference was of the most harmonious character, notably differing, in that respect, with the boiling, bubbling, bibulous Democratic Conference of Tuesday.

Both nominees are men of sterling good sense, above reproach, popular and strong in every sense, and without a question their nomination was the best the Conference could have made.

The nomination of Wm. P. Wilson, Esq., ensures the carrying of Centre Co., and will enable the Republicans in that Democratic stronghold to redeem the county.

In the Republican ranks, in this Senatorial district, there is no division, no dickerings, but a unanimity of sentiment in favor of our Senatorial nominees. On the other hand, the Democratic nominees are both personally and politically unpopuler.

Our good, democratic neighbor, Fred Kurtz, of the Centre Hall Reporter complains of our reference to R. H. Duncan, Esq., as deserving the votes of the Railroad men of Centre County rather than P. G. Meek, of Bellefonte, for the office of Assemblyman.

As Bellefonte has not yet opened subscriptions books, after two years of effort on the part of the people of Penns Valley, and Mr Duncan has spent time and money and is one of the Directors of the Railroad Company, it becomes a mere act of gratitude for the people to favor Mr. Duncan, who has proved himself a better Railroad man than Mr. Meek. They should do so and we must be excused in insisting on this truth.—Mifflinburg Telegraph.

THE Democratic conferees for this Congressional District, met at Lock Haven, and nominated Henry Sherwood of Tioga county, for Congress, Mr. Sherwood has been an aspirant for the Democratic nomination for Congress several times before, but for some reason he has never succeeded in securing it until now. He will be soundly thrashed this time, by Hon. Wm. H. Armstrong.

DEMOCRATIC SENATORIAL NOMINATIONS.

The Democratic Senatorial nominations of this district, does not seem to give satisfaction to the members of that party. The irrepressible Traugh of the Holidaysburg Standard swears vengeance on the nominees; the Mifflintown Independent, is squarely out against the election of the Democratic nominee as well as several other leading Democrats of the District. In fact, from the present state of disorganization prevailing in the Democratic party, it appears that the Republican nominees, Messrs Wilson and Woods, will walk over the political race course without any serious opposition. Even that veteran editor and staunch Democrat, Moore, of the Altoona Sun, growls over their nominations and gives up the contest without firing a gun. Hear him:

"In making this announcement we cannot forbear the expression of our profound regret. The convention had before it the material to have formed a ticket whose success would have been morally certain. We will not say that the present ticket cannot be elected, but we say this, that no men are fit to represent the democratic party as delegates who, in such a district as this, and when so much is at stake as the political complexion of the State Senate, will throw away a certainty for an uncertainty. Col. Everhart, the choice of the democracy of Blair county was acknowledged to be the strongest man named, even by those who had the most to do with saying who should be nominated. But it seemed as if the slate had been made up and these delegates who assumed to represent the will of their constituents, which was unanimously in favor of selecting the strongest ticket possible, had not the nerve, or the independence, to alter it. Let the consequence lie with them."

For the REPUBLICAN.

COL. W. W. BROWN:—In the last Watchman we find the wail of J. G. Kurtz, to his quandom friend E. H. Kinsloe, blubbering out: "Bill Armstrong did'nt give me my cake, and he shan't be re-elected to Congress, so he shan't" And why? He pokes a question to Kinsloe: "Did I understand you correctly when you said that Mr. Armstrong asked whether you were satisfied with the amount he forwarded to your address for editorial services and printing tickets for the campaign in which he was elected two years ago." This was the question by which it appears that Kinsloe received his pay for Editorial services and printing tickets for that campaign; but how much he received from Mr. Armstrong he plays mum. Did it include Kurtz?

It was for the campaign that Mr. Kinsloe was paid and for which he was satisfied; but Kinsloe attempts to play cute in his answer. He does not tell the amount he received for services in printing tickets for Mr. Armstrong for that campaign; but says "Mr. Armstrong informed me he paid you $100 for that campaign."

So it appears Mr. Kinsloe is the originator of this $100 elephant. George appears surprised, and declares Mr. Armstrong "never offered such a sum, and he (I) never asked it of you," (Mr. A.)

This looks like a lie between three; but it is not Mr. Armstrong. But George does say Mr. Armstrong "did promise him the Post Office." If Mr. Armstrong did hold out such a bait, he must certainly have understood George's principles—to support those who would pay the best. He deserted the Democratic party because that party would not elect him Register and Recorder, and ever since has been hanging on the Republican party he has played the political leech, crying give! give!! George could not stay on probation and abide his time; but cries "give me an office—any office—Post Office is what I prefer."

We now find him rushing into the columns of the Watchman to spit his spite on better men than himself. He seems to forget that the Watchman has published him as a Hessian and miserable dolt; but on, on he rushes, takes Gray around the neck, and no doubt kisses him, all for the privilege of making an ass of himself, and by his doleful lamentations, proving that he has no principle, and that Mr. Armstrong showed his good sense and knowledge of human nature, in refusing to recommend him as Post Master of Bellefonte.

After this lamentable lamentation which George has published in the Watchman, is there a single Republican in the county, that will condemn Mr. Armstrong for not imposing this political pauper and leech on the people of Bellefonte as Post Master? Mr. Armstrong has displayed great taste and judgment in his appointments, or rather in his recommendation, to office. In doing so, he has left Kurtz and Kinsloe out in the cold. Therefore, Kurtz and Kinsloe have united their terrible influence with the Watchman against the Republican candidate for Congress. Flee Fleck.

REGISTRY LAW.

I also give official notice to the electors of Dauphin County that by an act entitled "An Act further supplemental to the act relative to the elections of this Commonwealth," approved April 17, A. D. 1869, it is provided as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same.

That it shall be the duty of each of the assessors within this Commonwealth, on the first Monday in June of each year, to take up the transcription he has received from the county commissioners under the eighth section of the act of fifteenth April, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, and proceed to an immediate revision of the same, by striking therefrom the name of every person who is known by him to have died or removed since the last previous assessment from the district of which he is the assessor, or whose death or removal from the same shall be made known to him and to add to the same the name of any qualified voter who shall be known by him to have moved into the district since the last previous assessment, of whose removal into the same shall be or shall have been made known to him, and also the names of all who shall make claim to him to be qualified voters therein. As soon as this revision is completed he shall visit every dwelling house in his district and make careful inquiry if any person whose name is on his list has died or removed from the district, and if so, to take the same therefrom, or wether any qualified voter resides therein whose name is not on his list, and if so, to add the same thereto; and in all cases where a name is added to the list a tax shall forthwith be assessed against the person; and the assessor shall in all cases ascertain by inquiry, upon what ground the person so assessed claims to be a voter. Upon the completion of this work it shall be the duty of each assessor as aforesaid to proceed to make out a list, in alphabetical order, of the white freemen above twety-one years of age, claiming to be qualified voters in the ward, borough, township or district of which he is the assessor, and opposite each of the said names state whether said freeman is or is not a house-keeper; and if he is, the number of his residence, in towns where the same are numbered, with the street, alley or court in which situated; and if in a town where there are no numbers, the name of the street, alley or court on which said house fronts; also the occupation of the person; and where he is not a housekeeper, the occupation, place of boarding, and with whom, and if working for another, the name of the employer, and write opposite each of said names the word "voter;" where any person claims to vote by reason of naturalization, he shall exhibit his certificate thereof to the assessor, unless he has been for five consecutive years next preceding a voter in said district; and in all cases where the person has been naturalized, the same shall be marked with the letter "N;" where the person has merely declared his intention to become a citizen, and designs to be naturalized before the next election, the name shall be marked "D. I.;" where the claim is to vote by reason of being between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two, as provided by law, the word "age" shall be entered; and if the person has moved into the election district to reside since the last general election, the letter "R." shall be placed opposite the name. It shall be the futher duty of each assessor as aforesaid, upon the completion of the duties herein imposed, to make out a separate list of all new assessments made by him, and the amounts assessed upon each and furnish the same immediated to the county commissioners, who shall immediately add the name to the tax duplicate of the ward, borough, township or district in which they have been assessed.

SEC. 2. On the list being completed and the assessments be made as aforesaid, the same shall be forthwith returned to the county commissioners, who shall cause duplicate copies of said lists, with the observations and explanations required to be noted as aforesaid, to be made out as soon as practicable, and placed in the hands of the assessor, who shall prior to the first of August in each year put one copy on the door of or on the house where the election of the respective district is required to be held, and retain the other in its possession, for the inspection, free of charge, of any person resident in the said election district who shall desire to see the same; and it shall be the duty of the said assessor to add, from time to time, on the personal application of any one claimant, and mark opposite the name "C. V.," and immediately assess him with a tax, nothing, as in all other cases, his occupation, residence, whether a border or housekeeper; if a boarder, with whom he boards, or whether naturalized or designing to be, marking in all such cases the letters opposite the name, "N." or D. I.," as the case may be; if the person claiming to be assessed be naturalized, he shall exhibit to the assessor his certificate of naturalization, and if he claims that he designs to be naturalized before the next ensuing election, he shall exhibit the certificate of his declaration of intention; in all cases where any ward, borough, township or election district is divided into two or more precincts, the assessor shall note in all his assessments the election precinct in which each elector resides, and shall make a separate return for each to the county commissioners in all cases in which a return is required from him by the provisions of this act; and the county commissioners in making duplicate copies of all such returns, shall make duplicate copies of the name of the voters in each precinct, separately, and shall furnish the same to the assessor; and the copies required by this act to be placed on the doors of or on election places on or before the first of August in each year, shall be placed on the door of or on the election place in each of said precincts.

SEC. 3. After the assessments have been completed on the tenth day preceding the second Tuesday in October of each year, the assessor shall, on the Monday immediately following, make a return to the county commissioners of the names of all persons assessed by him since the return required to be made by him by the second section of this act, noting opposite each name the observations and explanations required to be noted as aforesaid; and the county commissioners shall thereupon cause the same to be added to the return required by the second section of this act, and a full and correct copy thereof to be made, containing the names of all persons so returned as resident taxables in said ward, borough, township or precinct, and furnish the same, together with the necessary election blanks, to the officer of the election in said ward, borough, township or precinct on or before six o'clock in the morning of the second Tuesday of October; and no man shall be permitted to vote at the election on that day whose name is not on said list, unless he shall make proof of his right to vote, as hereinafter required.

SEC. 4. On the day of election any person whose name is not on the said list and claiming the right to vote at said election, shall produce it least one qualified voter of the district as a witness to the residence of the claimant in the district in which he claims to be a voter, for the period of at least ten days next preceding said election, which witness shall take and subscribe a written, or partly written and partly printed, affidavit to the facts stated by him, which affidavit shall define clearly where the residence is of the person so claiming to be a voter; and the person so claiming the right to vote shall also take and subscribe a written, or partly written and partly printed affidavit, stating to the best of his knowledge and belief, where and when he was born; that he is a citizen of the com'n'wlth of Pennsylvania and of the United States; that he has resided in the Commonwealth one year, or if formerly a citizen therein, and has moved therefrom that he has resided therein six months next preceding said election; that he has not moved into the district for the purpose of voting therein; that he has paid a State or county tax within two years, which was assessed at least ten days before said election; and, if a naturalized citizen shall also state when, where and by what court he was naturalized, and shall also produce a certificate of naturalization for examination; the said affidavit shall also state when and where the tax claimed to be paid by the affiant was assessed, and when, where and to whom paid, and the tax receipt therefor shall be produced for examination, unless the affiant shall state in his affidavit that it has been lost or destroyed, or that he never received any, but if the person so claiming the right to vote shall take and subscribe an affidavit, that he is a native born citizen of the United States (or if born elsewhere, shall state that fact in his affidavit, and shall produce evidence that he has been naturalized, or that he is entitled to citizenship by reason of his father's naturalization); and shall further state in his affidavit, that he is, at the time of taking the affidavit, between the ages of twenty one and twenty two years; that he has resided in the State one year and in the election district ten days next preceding such election, he shall be entitled to vote, although he shall not have paid taxes; the said affidavits of all persons making such claims, and the affidavits of the witnesses to their residence, shall be preserved by the election board and at the close of the election they shall be enclosed with the list of voters, tally list and other papers required by law to be filed by the return judge with the prothonotary, and shall remain on file therewith in the prothonotary's office, subject to examination, as other election papers are; if the election officers shall find that the applicants possess all the legal qualifications of voters, he or they shall be permitted to vote, and the name or names shall be added to the list of taxables by the election officers the word "tax" being added where the claimant claims to vote on tax, and the word "age" where he claims to vote on age; the same words being added by the clerks in each case respectively on the lists of persons voting at such election.

SEC. 5. It shall be lawful for any qualified citizen of the district, notwithstanding the name of the proposed voter is contained on the list of resident taxables, to challenge the vote of such person; whereupon the same proof of the right of suffrage as is now required by law shall be publicly made and acted on by the election board, and the vote admitted or rejected, according to the evidence; every person claiming to be a naturalized citizen shall be required to produce his naturalization certificate at the election before voting, except where he has been for ten years, consequently a voter in the district in which he offers his vote; and on the vote of such person being received, it shall be the duty of the election officers to write or stamp on such certificate the word "voted," with the month and year; and if any election officer or officers shall receive a second vote on the same day, by virtue of the same certificate, excepting where sons are entitled to vote by virtue of the naturalization of their fathers, they and the person who shall offer such second vote, upon so offending shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, be fined or imprisoned, or both, at the discretion of the court; but the fine shall not exceed one hundred dollars in each case, nor the imprisonment one year; the like punishment shall be inflicted, on conviction, on the officers of election who shall neglect or refuse to make, or cause to be made the endorsement required as aforesaid on said naturalization certificate.

SEC. 6. If any election officer shall refuse or neglect to require such proof of the right of suffrage as is prescribed by this law, or the laws to which this is a supplement, from any person offering to vote whose name is not on the list of assessed voters, or whose right to vote is challenged by any qualified voter present, and shall admit such persons to vote without requiring such proof, every person so offending shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and shall be sentenced, for every such offense, to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not more than one year, or either, or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 7. Ten days preceeding every election for electors of President and Vice President of the United States, it shall be the duty of the assessors to attend at the place fixed by law for holding the election in each election district, and then and there hear all applications of persons whose names have been omitted from the list of assessed voters, and who claim the right to vote or whose rights have originated since the same was made out, and shall add the names of such persons thereto as shall show that they are entitled to the right of suffrage in such district, on the personal application of the claimant only, and forthwith assess them with the proper tax. After completing the list, a copy thereof shall be placed on the door of or on the house where the election is to be held, at least eight days before the election; and at the election the same course shall be pursued, in all respects, as is required by this act and the acts to which it is a supplement, at the general elections in October. And the Assessor shall also make the same returns to the county commissioners of all assessments made by virtue of this section; and the county commissioners shall furnish copies thereof to the election officers in each district, in like manner, in all respect, as is required at the general elections in October.

SEC. 8. The same rules and regulations shall apply at every special election, and at every separate city, borough or ward election, in all respects as at the general election in October.

SEC. 9. The respective assessors, inspectors and judges of the elections shall each have the power to administer oaths to any persons claiming the right to be assessed or the right of suffrage or in regard to any other matter or thing required to be done or inquired into by any of said officers under this act; and any willful false swearing by any person in relation to any matter or thing concerning which they shall be lawfully interrogated by any of said officers shall be punished as perjury.

SEC. 10. The assessors shall each receive the same compensation for the time necessarily spent in performing the duties hereby enjoined as is provided by law for the performance of their other duties to be paid by the county commissioners as in other cases; and it shall not be lawful for any assessor to assess a tax against any person whatever within ten days next preceding the election to be held on the second Tuesday of October, in any year, or within ten days next before any election for electors of President and Vice President of the United States: any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor, and subject the officers so offending to a fine, on conviction, not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment not exceeding three months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 11. On the petition of five or more citizens of the county, stating under oath that they verily believe that frauds will be practiced at the election about to be held in any district, it shall be the duty of the court of common pleas of said county, if in session, or if not a judge thereof in vacation, to appoint two judicious, sober and intelligent citizens of the county to act as overseers at said election; said overseers shall be selected from different political parties, where the inspectors belong to different parties, and where both of said inspectors belong to the political party, both of the overseers shall be taken from the opposite political party; said overseers shall have the right to be present with the officers of the election, during the whole time the same is held, the votes counted and the returns made out and signed by the election officers; to keep a list of voters, if they see proper; to challenge any person offering to vote, and interrogate him and his witness under oath, in regard to his right of suffrage at said election, and to examine his papers produced; and the officers of said election are required to afford to said overseers so elected and appointed every convenience and facility for the discharge of their duties, and if said election officers shall refuse to permit said overseers to be present and perform their duties as aforesaid, or if they shall be driven away from the polls by violence or intimidation, all the votes polled at such election district may be rejected by any tribunal trying a contest under said election: Provided: That no person signing the petition shall be appointed an overseer.

SEC. 12. If any prothonotary, clerk, or the deputy of either, or any other person, shall affix the seal of office to any naturalization paper, or permit the same to be affixed, or give out, or cause or permit the same to be given out, in blank, whereby it may be fraudulently used, or furnish a naturalization certificate to any person who shall not have been duly examined and sworn in open court, in the presence of some of the judges thereof according to the act of Congress, or shall aid in, connive at, or in any way permit the issue of any fraudulent naturalization certificate, he shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor; or if any one shall fraudulently use any such certificate of naturalization, knowing that it was fraudulently issued, or shall vote, or attempt to vote thereon, or if any one shall vote, or attempt to vote, on any certificate of naturalization not issued to him, he shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor; and either or any of the persons, their aiders or abettors, guilty of either of the misdemeanors aforesaid, shall, on conviction, be fined in a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, and imprisoned in the proper penitentiary for a period not exceeding three years.

SEC. 13. Any person who on oath or affirmation, in or before any court in this State, or officer authorized to administer oaths, shall, to procure a certificate of naturalization, for himself or any other person, wilfully depose, declare or affirm any matter to be fact, knowing the same to be false, or shall in like manner deny any matter to be fact, knowing the same to be true, shall be deemed guilty of perjury; and any certificate of naturalization issued in pursuance of any such deposition declaration or affirmation shall be null and void; and it shall be the duty of the court issuing the same, upon proof being made before it that it was fraudulently obtained, to take immediate measures for recalling the same for cancellation, and any person who shall vote or attempt to vote on any paper so obtained or who shall in any way aid in, connive at or have any agency whatever in the issue, circulation or use of any fraudulent naturalization certificate, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall undergo an imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than two years, and pay a fine not more than one thousand dollars for every such offense, or either or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 14. Any assessor, election officer or person appointed as an overseer, who shall neglect or refuse to perform any duty enjoined by this act, without reasonable or legal cause, shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars, and if any assessor shall assess any person as a voter who is not qualified, or shall refuse to assess any one who is qualified, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and on conviction be punished by fine or imprisonment, and also be subject to an action for damages by the party aggrieved; and if any person shall fraudulently alter, add to, deface or destroy any list of voters made out as directed by this act, or tear down or remove the same from the place where it has been fixed with fraudulent or mischievous intent or for any improper purpose the person so offending shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

LOCAL ITEMS.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

SPHYNX.—Owing to the political campaign becoming somewhat interesting, your communication has been filed until after the election, when it will appear.

BASE BALL.—Declined with thanks.

G. W. L.—Yours in regard to Liberty Grove Sunday School, is on file and will appear shortly.

A DEMOCRAT.—Yours received. All right. It will appear soon.

THE season for agricultural fairs has begun.

THE birds have given up love making and housekeeping.

THIS month begins the oyster season. We'll take a roast.

SHORT way to raise calves—Let a mouse loose at a female tea party.

PERILOUS.—It is said to be perilous for a milk wagon to stop near a pump.

DEER hunting has commenced in the northern part of the State. In this place it has no end. Our devil says so.

CORN CRIB.—The man who ate 27 ears of corn at one time had his mortal effects taken charge of by the coroner.

YOUNG men in this locality, if desirous of the respect of the ladies, should use words the meaning of which they understand.

GOULD, formerly editor of the National, of this place, but now editor of the Cameron Press, has moved into the jail at Emporium.

TRUE—a man who loves his family will always take a newspaper, and a man who respects his family will always pay for it.

SQUIRRELS.—Hunters of these luxuries are meeting with great success at present. Every day parties can be seen returning from the woods loaded with them.

Do not forget that under the present law, elections for Borough and Township Officers will be held on the day of the general election—the second Tuesday of October.

DEATH OF JOHN MCMINN.—John M'Minn, Esq., of Williamsport, and at one time Chief Engineer of the B. E. V. Railroad, died in Norfolk, Va., on Sunday the 11th inst.

A clergyman in New York, only a few days since, said "science must stop or religion cannot go on."—Exchange.

IF fools are kept out of the pulpit there will be no need of interfering with science.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.—It may serve as a warning to those who are in the habit of abusing horses, to state that a man in Massachusetts was recently sentenced to eight months' imprisonment for killing a horse by fast driving.

AN enterprising bar-keeper has recently introduced into the borough the "Chassepot cocktail" and "needle-gun cartridge." A persistent indulgence in either commodity is said to "fetch" the victim in the most effectual manner.

WHENEVER you wish to purchase anything, take a look through the advertising columns of our paper. You will be sure to find some enterprising dealer asking for your trade. That's the very man you're after, as liberal advertisers are always liberal dealers.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mrs. Singleton, of Huston township, this county, died very suddenly on the 2d inst., aged 38 years. She was enjoying remarkably good health up to the day of her death. She was setting sewing when she suddenly fell and expired in three hours.

RANKIN the enterprising Book seller has on his counters "Both sides of the Street," and "Moth & Rust." the latest Prize Sunday School Books. They are such as will be received with joy in all schools. Parents go and see these books and give them a place in your homes.

SAUSAGE AND DOGS.—Can there be no inducement held out by our enterprising men to get a sausage manufacturing establishment located in this place. If such an institution was located here, the bawling of nine hundred and ninety-nine dogs, more or less, would soon cease to annoy respectable citizens.

BARN BURNED.—On the night of the 5th instant the barn of John Brumgard, Sr., in Sugar Valley, was totally destroyed by fire, with its contents, farming utensils, four horses, and a few young cattle. The loss is estimated at nearly $5,000; insured for $1,500. Supposed to have been set on fire by some malicious person.

TAYLORING AND FURNISHING GOODS.—Persons in need of good clothes, made to order, should call at Montgomery's at No 7. Brokerhoof Row, and they will be accommodated. Mr. Montgomery also has a good supply of gents Furnishing goods of every shade and variety, from a kid glove to a hat, which he proposes to sell at reasonable prices.—Mr. Montgomery deals honestly and fairly with all who choose to patronize him. For particulars, consult his advertisement in another column of to-day's paper.

WE are sorry to say that our borough contains many wayward, wilful and headstrong children, who are subjected to corrupting influences, and liable to become victims to older and more depraved companions. Parents cannot be too careful as to the associates of their growing children, and especially should they be watchful in regard to the culture of their daughters. It is too much the custom here to allow young girls the latitude of the street after night-fall; and it is no unusual sight to see misses of tender age assuming all the airs of finished flirts.

GOOD TEMPLARS CONVENTION.—The West Branch District Convention of I. O. G. T., met at Renova, Clinton Co., on the 6th inst. Delegates from six Lodges were in attendance. The only delegates from Centre Co., in the convention were R. Emma Rishel, L. M. Logan and Hon. Wm. Allison: Jr., of Howard Lodge No. 100.

The Convention elected the following persons officers of the next convention: Brother U. S. N. Crouse, D. W. C. T.; Sister R. Emma Rishel, D. W. V.; Brother Wm. Allison, Jr. D. W. Secretary; Brother H. W. Regan, D. W. T.

The next District Convention will be held at Jersy Shore Lodge No. 473, on the 13th and 14th of December, 1870.

PLOTTS' Williamsport City Directory 1870-'71, with a Business Directory of Bellefonte, Howard, Beech Creek, Lock Haven, and all the towns located on the line of the P. E. Railroad, from Milton, in Northumberland county, to Kane, in Elk county, compiled by J. N. Plotts; published by Conly Plotts, Williamsport, Pa. For sale by D. D. Wallace, Williamsport.

To the business man, this book is an invaluable guide, and of great interest to the community in general. It also contains the official directory of all persons holding office in five counties as well as the boroughs and cities, it represents. Persons wishing to keep up with the improvement of the times, should purchase this Directory.

PETTY LARCENY.—On Monday night, the 12th inst., some petty, mean, low thief, broke into the spring house of Mrs. Ruth Boalich; who resides at the gate house, near town, on the Lewistown turnpike, stole a nice large roll of butter and several other articles. A thief that would steal from a widow and fatherless children must be a mean thief indeed. We suppose the great temptation was the butter, for it was fresh and made by Mrs. Joseph Comely, of Spring township, one of the best butter makers in the country.

SECRETARY OF STATE.—Col. John H. Stover, formerly of this place, has been nominated by the Republican State Convention of Missouri for the office of Secretary of State. Maj. Stover was one of Centre county's brightest gems and the Republican party in his adopted State, could not have nominated a more capable or deserving man. If the people of Missouri were as well acquainted with him, as the people of old Centre are, they would elect him by an overwhelming majority.

LECTURE COURSE.—We are happy to learn that our enterprising Young Men's Christian Association have concluded upon giving our citizens a course of Lectures during the coming winter. They have already secured the services of Wendel Philips, Miss Olive Logan and Miss Annie Dickinson, and are in correspondence with Geo. Francis Train and others. The Y. M. C. A. of this place is in a thriving condition and will continue to be a permanent institution of Bellefonte.

ACCIDENT.—A son of Mr. John Haines, while at work on the new road along Pine creek, in Haines tp., one day last week, in sitting upon a wagon that was filled with dirt, received a severe stroke across the stomach from a shovel which had slipped into the wheel while the wagon was in motion. His injuries were so serious that his life was despaired of, but we are glad to learn he is now recovering.—Reporter.

WE learn that a Workingman's Association, designed to advance the interests and social welfare of our Mechanics and laboring men, is about being organized in Bellefonte. By workingmen combining their efforts and working together harmoniously, great benefits would flow from an organization of this kind, and the condition of this useful class of citizens would be greatly ameliorated.

THE POTTER WILL.—The Potter will case occupied the Lycoming Court last week from Tuesday morning until the time of adjournment on Saturday evening. The case was given to the jury about half-past four o'clock P. M., and in less than one hour the jury returned with a verdict setting aside the will. The Court adjourned for the term.

CONCERT TROUPE.—The celebrated Weaver Brothers, vocalists and instrumentalists, are engaged in giving a series of their excellent concerts in this part of the State. They are spoken of by those who have had the pleasure of listening to their melodious warblings as being a superior and worthy company of musicians.

ENTERPRISE.—The Methodists of Philipsburg are erecting a brick church which is to cost twenty thousand dollars.

The Baptists of the same place, are putting up a frame church which will cost about five thousand dollars.

FIRE.—An other destructive fire occured in Williamsport on Monday night of last week, destroying six buildings on Gilmore and Campbell sts. It was no doubt the work of some incendiary. The losses sustained were heavy, and only partialy insured.

THE BERICHTER.—Formly published at Aaronsburg, this county, has been sold to Capt. Smith, of Millheim, and will be published at the latter place by Mr. Phil. D. Stover, the present publisher.

ERRATTA.—In publishing the notice of the series of Republican meetings in our last paper, we had the meeting at Eagleville to take place on Monday, when it should have been on Thursday. the 22nd inst.

SOLD.—Mr. John Hess, has sold his farm known as the Jacob Hess farm, near St. Paul's, in Haines twp., to Mr John C. Stover, of Aaronsburg, for $5,500.—Reporter.

SEPTEMBER.—At one time the year commenced in March, and then this was the seventh month, consequently it was properly called September.

SUDDEN DEATH.—We learn from the last Reporter that an infant child of Mr. John Burrell, dec'd, was found dead in its cradle, on the 6th inst.

THE FAIR.—Every manufacturing establishment located in the county, should have on examination at our county fair a specimen of their work.

LARGE HOGS.—Maj. J. B. Fisher, recently shipped from this place, 13 live hogs, the whole number weighing 4,000 pounds.

THE population of Philipsburg and the towns adjoining it is 1,840.

IMPORTANT NEWSPAPER CHANGE.—The Hearth and Home, a finely illustrated family journal of a high character, hitherto issued by Messrs. Pettengill, Bates & Co., has been purchased by Messrs. Orange Judd & Co., of 245 Brodway, New York, the well-known publishers of the American Agricultrist. Messrs. S. M. Pettengill & Co., whose great Advertising Agency, established in 1849, is one of the largest and most reputable in the world, find that their extensive business requires their exclusive attention, and they therefore transfer Hearth and Home to the new Publishers, whose long experience and abundant facilities will enable them not only to maintain the past high character of the paper, but to add materially to its value. The new Publishers also announce a reduction of the terms to $3 per year. The change will not at all affect the American Agriculturist, which will continue on independently as heretofore. The Illustrations and reading matter of the two journals will be entirely different. Either of the journals will be furnished from now to the end of 1871 (15 months,) at the yearly subscription rate, viz.: the Weekly Hearth and Home at $3; the Monthly American Agriculturist, $1.50; or the two for $4.

S. S. INSTITUTE.—A Sabbath School Institute will be held under the auspices of the Centre County Sabbath School Association at Philipsburg on Tuesday and Wednesday the 27th, 28th days of September, instant. The first service will be announced on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. It is hoped that all persons interested in the Sabbath School work can possibly attend will do so. We hope to see our friends from the upper Bald Eagle present in force. It is expected that special addresses perhaps for the occasion will be delivered by Rev. Mr. Plannett of Huntingdon, Rev. Mr. Butler of Clearfield, Rev. Mr. Wilson of Philipsburg, and others. The Rev. Messrs. Hackenburg, Wolf, Mullin, Cleaver, and Wiley, are also exepected to be present. There will be plenty of earnest words which will we hope, incite to earnest work. Entertainment will be provided for visitors.

PRUNER'S PATENT HYDRANT.—We saw the working of a hydrant, invented and patented by our fell out townsman, D. I. Pruner, Esq. One of the specialities of this hydrant is, that after the water is taken from it, by a simple arrangement at the base all the surplus water in the pipe is dicharged, thus preventing the hydrant from freezing. Another advantage which this hydrant possesses, and a very valuable one to owners, is that by its own action the valves make their own bed and never get out of order saving thereby an annual expense to the owner for repairs. The very fact that it will last for several years without repairing, should alone make a lively demand for it.

LARGE POTATOES.—Mr. H. D. Lee, of Patton township, this county, left at this office one day last week, a peck of California and Prince Albert Potatoes, some of the California potatoes measuring nine inches in length and eight inches in circumference, and some of the Prince Alfred's measured six inches in length and eight inches in circumference. Finer flavored potatoes we never ate. Mr. Lee is a first class farmer and has our thanks. If any other farmer can beat Mr. Lee, we would like to sample a bushel or two of that farmers' raising after which we will give the result.

HOW IT IS DONE.—A leading Democratic politician in Clinton Co., is explaining the work of the needle gun to his constituents. He says they fire needles and no particular harm is done until the wound festers. These festers then become fly blown and ultimately prove fatal.

It is expected that he will stump this county next month and enlighten the Democracy on the effect of chassepots.

PHILIPSBURG SCHOOLS.—We learn from the Philipsburg Journal that the public schools of that place, opened on Monday last in charge of the following corps of teachers: High School, Mr. F. W. A. Schultz; Second grade, Miss Emma Isenberg; Third grade, Miss Clara Smith; Fourth grade, Miss Jennie Shontz.

"THE Fulton county (Illinois) fair is advertised in 39 different papers, in addition to 10,000 whole sheet handbills, and 500 mammoth colored posters. The managers of that fair know how to make it a success."

How different this course is to that pursued by many of those who have the management of fairs in Penn'a.

BOOKS.—The readers of this paper are directed to the advertisement of George Livingston, Esq., in another column of this paper. Mr. Livingston is an old and respectable citizen and has the reputation of fair dealing with the public. Give him a call if you desire anything in his line of business.

"PROTRACTED MEETING."—A protracted meeting, under the charge of Rev. James Mullen, is now going on in the M. E. Church of this place. We understand that there has been a considerable interest manifested at this meeting and hope the efficient Pastor's wishes may be fully realized.

RETURNED.—The party of citizens who left this place some two weeks ago on an exploring expedition to Western Virginia, returned this week apparently in a healthier condition than when they left. They report everything in that section as prosperous and "altogether lovely."

"Mrs. James S. Kasey, of Bedford co., Va., from one peck of Goodrich potatoes, recently dug thirteen bushels, besides using three or four bushels in her family during the season."

Can any woman in Centre county beat Mrs. Kasey. If they can we would like to hear from her.

INTERESTING.—The Janitor of the Court House and the Chief Burgess of our borough, were seen last Monday, p. m., gracefully stretched out on a cellar door on Allegheny street. Pretty mix.

DEDICATION.—The Presbyterian church on Buffalo Run, will be dedicated on Saturday, October 1st, at 2 o'clock, p. m. Services will be held on Sunday.

TO BE INCORPORATED.—The Young Men's Christian Association of Bellefonte, made application to our last Court to be made an incorporated body.

FARMERS.—Our farmers would be benefitted, if every one of them would contribute some article to our Agricultural Fair for exhibition.

BE sure and attend the Sabbath School Institute at Philipsburg on the 27th, 28th days of September instant. Entertainment will be provided for visitors.

For the REPUBLICAN.

MESSRS. EDITORS:

The Camp Meeting of Milesburg Circuit closed on Friday morning, the 9th ult. The first few days of the meeting was somewhat dull in consequence of inclement weather, but notwithstanding this, the meeting was one of interest and will long be remembered by many who were there. Too much cannot be said of the untiring efforts of J. W. Cleaver, Preacher in charge, to make the meeting a success. His sanguine expectations were realized, and some eighteen were happily converted to God while others were at the alter for prayer. The preachers present were Rev. J. W. Buckley, a sound theologian, a faithful embassador for Christ; Rev. Thomas Barnhart, a native of Centre county, who for profoundness and depth has few equals; Rev. Mullen, of Bellefonte charge, was with us in spirit and in power, his direct appeals were such as to convince any rational man that the way of the transgressor is hard; Rev. J. S. McMurray, presiding elder, though long in the way, is neither weary nor way-worn, but preaches with more energy than when he traveled among us in by-gone years; Rev. M. P. Crosthwait, of Salona, one with whom many were familiar, and one of the best of men, and a preacher of great force and power, lent his enchanting eloquence and his musical voice to the conversion of souls, to the cause of his great Master. As a sincere, good, earnest and eloquent worker in the vineyard of the Lord, this eminent divine has few equals; Rev. Andrew Jamison, an old timed preacher, was there—his preaching well timed, pointed and touching; Rev. Dan'l Hartman, another way-worn preacher, contributed his efforts for the salvation of the people, though on the decline of life, he fails not to proclaim the whole council of God; Revs. J. B. Aikers, Robbins, Bell, Haughawaut and last, but not least, Rev. Jno. Hughes, local preacher, all having a mind to the work; the salvation of the people, working in unison contributed to make the meeting doubly interesting. On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoon a meeting was held for the children which was among the very interesting features of the meeting. I almost forgot, Rev. J. B. Mann, of Delaware, was present.

WINE.—A gentleman in New Jersey, named Speer, is cultivating the Port grape with signal success, from which an excellent wine is made, which is better than imported Port and has been adopted for medicinal purposes in the hospitals of New York, Philadelphia and Washington.

MARRIED.

On the 11th inst., on Marsh Creek, by Rev. J. W. Buckley, Mr. J. Smith, of Beech Creek, Pa. and Miss Sarah L. Watkins, of Marsh Creek, Pa.

DIED.

On the 11th inst., in Bellefonte, Anna Louisa, Infant daughter of Geo. H. and Jane Downing, aged 2 years and seven days.

Dear little Anna, thou art gone. Thou wast dear to our hearts. So blith, so beautiful, so gay and interesting. But thou hast gone. Gone to the grave—thy soul to God. The soul, too tender its ills to bear, has left our mortal hemisphere, and sought, in that better world, the blameless life decreed by heaven.

"Happy They!
Thrice fortunate! who of that fragile mould,
The precious porcelain of human clay,
Break with the first fall: They can near behold
The long year link'd with heavy day on day,
And all which must be borne, and never told."
B.

On the morning of the 14th inst., at Snow Shoe, of consumption, Mrs. Sommerville, wife of John S. Sommerville, Esq, aged 32 years.

Mrs. Sommerville is gone; gone to join her friends who went before her, in the realms of eternal life and glory. While living she was a true friend to the deserving poor, and a becoming worker in the cause of morality and religion, and many who, while she was living, were cheered and benefited by her advice and actions, will now sorely miss her, their friend and benefactor.

Mrs. Sommerville was born on the 15th of Nov. 1838 in Northumberland county, Pennsylvania, of pious parents, her father being a member of the Presbyterian church and her mother an honorable and respected member of the Lutheran denomination.—On the 2d of December 1867 she married John S. Sommerville Esq. of Snow Shoe where she resided until her death. She lingered all summer, displaying great christian patience and cheerfulness, and left her earthly body, when the leaves began to fall and as an humble child of God now sleeps in Jesus.

She's gone! for ever gone!
The King of terrors
Lays his rude hands upon her lovely limbs,
And blasts her beauties with her icy breath.
But she lives in glory; and her speaking dust,
Beckons us all to virtue, happiness and heaven
W. W. B.

On the 10th inst., at Milesburg, after a lingering illness, Mr. John B. DeArmot, in the 67th year of his age.

He died in hope of a Blissful immortality.
The lids he so seldom could close,
By sorrow forbidden to sleep;
Now seal'd in there mortal repose,
Have strangely forgotten to weep.
The fountains can yield no supplies,
These hollows from water are free;
The tears are all wiped from these eyes,
And Evil they never shall see.

COMPLETION OF THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.
GREAT RUSH TO STERNBERGS.
Sung to the tune of Yankee Doodle.
The Great Pacific Railroad's laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And now complete connections made,
An enterprising notion.
The mighty work at last is done,
So speedy and brisk, oh!
And now in ten days we can run
From here to San Francisco.
No more we take the ancient route,
The stage, a horrid slow thing;
It banged the passengers about
And wore out all their clothing.
CHORUS, for the end of each verse:
The Great Pacific Railroad laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And we buy clothes from A. STERNBERG,
A most delightful notion.
Through passengers by the Pacific Railroad will call at the store of A. Sternberg, before starting, and provide themselves with a complete outfit of Spring and Summer clothing, the very best assortment of which will always be found at A. Sternberg's Store.
People who travel by other routes, and also people who, instead of travelling by any route at all, prefer to stay at home, can find the most superior and seasonable garments, for every occasion, of every variety, and at the lowest price.
Do not fail to call and examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere; if you do not, we are sure you will be sorry that you did not. Our goods are put down to the lowest figure. We sell whole suits, according to quality.

ROSADALIS.
THE GREAT AMERICAN health RESTORER, purifies the blood and cures Scrofula, Syphilis, Skin diseases, Rheumatism, and all Chronic Affections of the blood, Liver and Kidneys. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and many thousands of our best citizens. Read the testimony of Physicians and patients who have used Rosadalis: send for our Rosadalis Guide to Health Book, or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitous distribution; it will give you much valuable information.
Dr. R. W. Carr, of Baltimore, says:
I take pleasure in recommending your Rosadalis as a very powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in a case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of alterative ingredients.
Dr. Sparks, of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalis in cases of Scrofula and Secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results—as a cleaner of the Blood I know no better remedy.
Samuel G. McFadden, Murfreesborough, Tenn., says:
I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis, and am entirely cured of Rheumatism; send me four bottles, as I wish it for my brother, who has scrofulous sore eyes.
Benjamin Bechtol, of Lima, Ohio, writes, I have suffered for twenty years with an inveterate eruption over my whole body; a short time since I purchased a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.
Rosadalis is sold by F. P. GREEN, and Druggists generally.

R. B. BARGER & CO.

"RALLY ROUND THE FLAG BOYS."

Republicans, workingmen, soldiers of Centre Co., we call upon you to "Rally round the old flag" once more. The Republican party is the party which, under God saved the life of the nation—saved the Union, saved our constitutional and religious liberties. It has proved itself to be the true friend of the great doctrine of Protection to American labor," and therefore the true and tried friend of the workingmen of the country.

We call upon you one and all to organized for the contest, organize, for the success of our liberty loveing principles, organize for the success of our whole ticket. The enemy is again in the field, he is marshaling his hosts. He has been in the wrong, woefully in the wrong for the past twelve years. In the hour of our Country's deepest, darkest peril his sympathies were all with the enemy. He was opposed to the war, opposed to freedom, opposed to justice and the Rights of man. In short he was in error, against the soldier, against his government. "Not another man nor another dollar for the prosecution of the war" was his language at that time. At a time when thousands of our brave boys were in the army bearing their breasts to the storms of iron hail hurled upon them by the rebel foe. He refused you help aid or comfort then. Will you trust him now. We know you will not.

To this end let us work. And in order that we may work and work effectually, intelligently, and successfully we have appointed the following series of meetings. See to it friends that these meetings are well attended. Stir up your luke-warm neighbor. Urge him to attend the meeting. See your honest Democratic friend, converse with him, treat him kindly and if possible take him with you to the meeting. A grand rally, one long pull and a strong pull, all together, and the victory will be on our side—the side of justice, Right God and humanity.

Work as you have never worked before. Work to make the meetings a success. Work for the ticket the whole ticket, from Congressman to Auditor.

Able speakers will be present at all of the above meetings.

JAS. H. RANKIN, Chairman.

More Republican Triumphs.

Last week the Republicans of Wilmington, Delaware, at their city election carried the city by a good round majority.

The state election in Vermont was carried by the Republicans by a majority of twenty-five thousand.

Last week at the annual state election in Main, the Republicans elected their Governor by seven thousand majority, also, all the Congressmen and a good majority of their Legislature.

The Republicans of Wyoming Territory have elected their Delegate to Congress by 200 majority. This is the territory where women exercise the right of franchise. Keep the ball rolling.

Last month the Republican Administration of Grant paid off another instalment of thirteen and a half millions of the public debt. Now, in the approaching Congressional elections the people have a chance to say whether they approve of this reduction of the public debt or not. The Democratic administration of Andrew Johnson never paid any, though the taxes were much heavier than now. That of Grant has never yet failed to reduce it at the end of every month. It the people are dissatisfied with this they will defeat the Republican candidates for Congress at the polls, and repudiate the Administration. If they are not they will defeat the Democratic candidates who are full of promises and barren of works. We predict that the people will say "Faith without works is dead."

WHICH IS YOUR CHOICE?—Honest Republican voter, which is your choice:—a Republican Legislature and a Republican districting of the State—or a Democratic Legislature and districting in State so as to secure a Democratic Legislature, a Democratic United States Senator and and a Democratic delegation in Congress for ten years to come? If you want Republicans, stick to the Republican Legislative and Senatorial ticket.

THE NATIONAL DEBT.—During the seventeen months General Grant has been President he has reduced the public debt at the rate of more than nine millions a month, or a grand total of $156,184,784. Into every branch of the public service his aim has been to introduce honesty and economy. Thieves and jobbers have been expelled from positions into which under Johnson they had wormed themselves.

A little four-year old miss hearing a gentleman addressed at her father's house as "Joseph," eyed him intently for a while and then asked, "Was you the Mr. Joseph that was sold by his brethren?" "Yes," replied the gentleman, "I have been sold great a many times, my dear." "O, I was so sorry for you!" said the little kindly heart.

FRESH EGGS.—An old lady sells eggs in Elmira, and has over her door a sign which reads "New laid eggs every day by Betty Briggs."

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Coughs, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to cold and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgements we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remidies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either residence in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the Ague Cure daily

For Liver Compiaints, arise from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilions Disor ers and Liver complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Perpared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

DR. PIERCE'S ALT. EXT. OR GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

This is the most thorough blood purifier yet discovered, and cures all humors from the worst Scrofula to a common Eruption. Pimples and Blotches on the face, and scaly or rough skin, which are such annoying blemishes to many young persons, yield to the use of a few bottles of this wonderful medicine. From one to eight bottles cure Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Scalk Head, Ring Worms, Boils, Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, Scrofula Sores, Ulcers and "Canker" in the Mouth and Stomach. It is a pure medicinal extracts of native roots and plants, combining in harmony Nature's most soverign curative properties, which God has installed into the vegetable kingdom for healing the sick. It is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are languid, sleepless, have nervous apprehensions or fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of weakness, will find convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated and despondent, have frequent Headache, mouth tastes badly in the morning, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only a part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. For the cure of Habitual Constipation of the Bowels it is a never failing remedy, and, those who have used it for this purpose are loud in its praise. In Bronchial, Throat and Lung Diseases, it has produced many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed. Sold by Druggists at $1,00 per bottle. Medical.

MANHOOD

In the Young and Rising Generation-

The vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lacklustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so facinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain. The parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S

EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision Langour, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures wan Despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences.
